

Book Club Discussion Questions

Was the evil presence in the house she referred to as the bad seed rental the catalyst and force behind her seeking an afternoon of meditation?

Was the family taken over by the evil presence of their rental house?

Are you prepared should you get lost?

Is the Voice that of good or evil?

How would you act differently, what would you do differently?

Was it Kelly's sudden withdrawal from her medication that caused her to see a mirage and to make some of her many mistakes?

Did the Reiki attunement open Kelly to the supernatural forces and experience she had?

How did Kelly survive in freezing temperatures barefoot with only shorts and a light jacket without freezing to death?

Was the bear that followed Kelly her animal guide and protector?

Did God send the wildlife to be a guide for Kelly to find water?

What would be your final thoughts of yourself, family, and faith in the throes of death?

If you were lost, would it bring your family close together or rip it apart?

What would be your first meal of choice if you hadn't eaten in 10 days?

Would you tell your story to your family and others or listen to the Voice compelling you to be quiet. Was this voice evil?

Would you be as trusting of strangers if you had this experience.

Does this story make you a believer of God, a higher power and deepen your faith?

How would you be affected if you had this near-death experience of Heaven and Hell?

Do you think Kelly should have been taken to a trauma hospital with psychiatric care?

What would be your thoughts if you believed you would never see your children and family again?

Does it surprise you to know that all you do and have done, the good and not so good is known to God? And would you do things differently? Change your life?

Is the message received relevant to present life and world events?

Does the message support more willingness to be forgiving of self and others?

What would you do, to what lengths would you go to heal yourself?

Have you had a supernatural experience?

What do you think the creature was in the woods?

Do you think the stranger that Kelly met was good or evil?

Would you have been afraid if a complete stranger told you they were going to burn in hell?

Do you think evil followed Kelly home?

What do you think Kelly was experiencing when the crystal light rained down upon her?

Where would you sleep if you were lost in the wilderness?

Would you have tried to swim across the river to get to the road?

Would you have tried to build a raft?

Should media and cameramen have been allowed to conduct interviews?